

Ileana van der Linde

Executive Director
Asset & Wealth Management
Cyber Advisory

Ileana van der Linde is an Executive Director in J.P. Morgan Asset & Wealth Management (AWM). As part of her role in the Cyber Advisory team, Ileana educates clients and employees globally on how to better protect themselves, their families, and their businesses from increasing cybersecurity threats.

Ileana's and her team develop timely cybersecurity educational materials on various topics to help address the needs of wealthy individuals, family offices, businesses and other centers of influence, so they are better prepared to deal with the reality of cyber threats. She works closely with her colleagues in cyber, fraud prevention, and technology to understand the latest threats, and solutions to mitigate them.

Ileana came to J.P. Morgan with extensive experience in wealth management and technology, having worked on numerous cyber and technology initiatives that impacted High Net Worth and Ultra-High Net Worth clients and their advisors. Throughout Ileana's career of 20+ years, she has always sought to make technology solutions easier to understand for a lay person. Prior to J.P. Morgan, Ileana worked for Morgan Stanley and Citigroup Private Bank. Prior to a career in financial services, Ileana worked for Hewlett-Packard in Europe.

Ileana has a Bachelors degree from Georgetown University, an MBA from Columbia Business School, and a Masters in Cybersecurity from Fordham University, a DoD Center of Excellence.
